The Amsterdam American Hotel - Hampshire Eden, located at the Leidse square, was built in 1900 and is officially listed as a national monument. The hotel covers a great history. When entering the hotel through the classic dark wood revolving door you step into a bright modern lobby with contemporary furniture. The hotel's eye catcher is the renovated café and restaurant with its art deco design and stained glass windows, taking you back to the 'Roaring Twenties'. The hotel features 175 rooms in total and a fitness & spa .

Nearest metro/train/bus station: Leidse square.

The fastest way is to take the Tram 5 to Station South and then Change to Bus 65 to KNSM Eiland
